Description

This is a lovely example of a ladies 1950s art deco wristwatch by Longines. It has a platinum case surrounded by diamonds and then more diamonds to the beautiful articulated shoulders which are incredibly white, bright and crisp - elegant and very much in the classic Art Deco design. total diamond content is approximately 2 cts. It has its original 9ct white gold bracelet with three position clasp. The case measures 11mm wide and the total length of the platinum and diamond section is 51mm including the diamond set articulated shoulders. The watch fits a wrist size upto 6 inches or 153mm. It can easily be reduced to fit a smaller wrist. If you need it any larger we can replace the white gold mesh cord with traditional black or silver silk cord. It comes complete with its original fitted presentation box from the retailer Jay Attenbrough of Oxford Street London. It is quite stunning, the case professionally cleaned and polished so it is absolutely pristine. The Longines movement has been professionally serviced and comes with a 12 month warranty. The case is marked platinum and has been fully tested. This watch certainly has a timeless elegance which resonates class....
